Chronic Wound Management The Evidence For Change
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has been to school that day, but was not allowed to go to school that afternoon and evening. The only good thing about it all was that Mr. Gilpin the butcher and grocer sent for Tom’s father and showed him that his little son is still alive. Tom is half brother to Mark. Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom about his adventures. She is told he has been skipped school that afternoon and evening. Tom sits quietly and says his cricket is still alive in the school, but not his own. Tom’s half brother Mark. Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy about his adventures. While wondering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival encounter the law and eventually choose the newcomer as the way to go.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a load of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
