The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tom's misconduct and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom goes out to run errands. He skips school that afternoon and goes down to give his aunt a hand in the kitchen. Tom is restless and brooding and eats too much. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but Tom's half-brother Sid is still down from London and eventually chances upon Tom's way of life.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of garbage. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chased him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
