The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime. He has a wide grin and a tale well spun about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly makes plans to keep Tom at home the next day to stay out of mischief and至尊 a drawer full of books that Aunt Polly has brought back from town. Tom and the new arrival are alone. Tom’s face lights up with anticipation and eventually chases the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. He passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Aunt Polly agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tablets.

Two words that describe a person's competence - knowledge and skill! At first glance, both of them seem synonymous but give it some thought and you would realize both of them are very different concepts. Knowledge refers to learning concepts, principles and information regarding a particular topic. Skill refers to the proficiency or dexterity acquired through practice, training or experience in a particular activity or field. Knowledge and skill are often used interchangeably but they are distinct concepts with different implications.
