Massey Ferguson 1560 Baler Manual
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has run away from school. Tom's hair is in disarray, and Aunt Polly asks about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells Tom that if he is ever caught skipping school again, he will be whipped. Tom's hair is still wet from being wet in the rain, and his clothes are dirty and torn. Aunt Polly is satisfied, and Tom realizes that he has only himself to blame.

Tom goes out of the house into the rain to escape the tears. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Huckleberry Finn, a friend of his, who tells him about his adventures on the river. Tom and Huck eventually become friends and eventually choose to become their way of life.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. His pansy by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of metal, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
