Nursing Consultation A Framework For Working With Communities 2nd Second Edition
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom reacts theatrically. “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sorrowfully on Tom’s misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime with a black eye, and Aunt Polly asks him what happened. Tom tells her that he was skipped school that afternoon and went down to the river to catch a fish, but it bit him. Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out of the house to light a cigarette. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom and the new arrival of the town, Huckleberry Finn, encounter a con man and eventually choose the newcomer as the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of mileage. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
