The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects editorially on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. Aunt Polly tells him that he will be skipped school that afternoon and sent to clean out the basement. The next day, Tom and his friend Huck Finn go off on an adventure. They find part of a buried treasure, and eventually choose the newcomers all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of edible. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.

She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time, but Aunt Polly, who has been informed about his adventures during the day, thinks it would be better if he be skipped school that afternoon and made to work in the yard. Tom’s brother Sid, however, convinces Aunt Polly that Tom is more likely to learn something by doing chores around the house than by doing nothing.

Tom and the new arrival on the street, Huckleberry Finn, go out to the empty lot and make plans for what they will do the next day. Tom and Finn decide to go out to the woods to look for a“Ishmael” – a name Tom has heard. When they return home, Tom and Aunt Polly are both surprised to see the name Ishmael penciled on Tom’s desk, and Tom realizes that he has been tricked.
