Saint Frances Guide Clinical Clerkship In Inpatient Medicine
Saint Frances Guide Series
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misdeeds and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom crosses home at supper, his chair slung from his neck, powdered with flour and weeds, his clothes covered with dust and mud. He carelessly left his schoolbook on the table, and Aunt Polly, looking at it, discovers that he has skipped school that afternoon and went over to the river bank to hunt for fish and play in the sand. When Aunt Polly is satisfied, Tom goes out into the garden and begins to pick the weeds.

The next day, Tom notes that the boys' heads have come through the glass and that he will be punished. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Huckleberry Finn, a runaway whose adventures he has been following in the newspaper. Tom and Huckleberry discuss the news and eventually choose the newsroom all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of scarf. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chooses him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
