Sot Manual
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misdeeds and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time. He looks thin and pale, and tells Aunt Polly that he has something to tell her about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom if he has been skipping school that afternoon and who was with him. Tom says that he has never been out of the town, but he has seen a fellow that his uncle is always speaking about. Aunt Polly is satisfied.

When Tom goes out of the house he meets his friend, Joe, coming the other way. Joe tells Tom that he has met Huckleberry Finn and that he has been to Harpers Ferry. Tom is very interested in Joe's story and eventually chooses to go out of the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitenewn the fence. Joe passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitening in return for a "white alley," a kind of snub. Joe almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
