The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has told all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he has been skipped school that afternoon and must therefore do extra work. Tom’s hand slowly reaches for a whisking. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg after school, Tom and the new arrival catch a cold wind in their faces and eventually chased the new comer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “whale cake,” a kind of molasses. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his task.
