The Secret Love Marriage And Hiv
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects proudly on Tom’s cleverness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime and is berated by his mother about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he will be skipped school that afternoon and most evenings because his father’s hair and shoes are still wet from the rain. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but Sadie, Tom’s half-sister, is afraid of what will happen. Tom has sworn the half-sister to secrecy and threatens her with his fist himself to disguise his misdeeds.

Tom goes out of the house into the streets of St. Petersburg, which is a village of gold dust and adventure. He is greeted by his friend, Joe Harper, who was also skipped school. They walk down the street and eventually choose the wrong way home.

When he arrives home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Joe passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Joe almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scrounging the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are cornered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects wistfully on Tom's mischief and how she let him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. He has a blood blister on his hand and shows her that his elbow is still sore from the football he played. Tom's half-brother, Sid, has been skipped school that afternoon and Tom needs to help him with his homework. Aunt Polly is satisfied, and Tom has sworn the boy to secrecy. Tom goes out of the house into the street, where he is confronted by his red-haired and arrogant schoolmate, Huckleberry Finn. Tom and the new arrival engage in a verbal battle, with Tom eventually chasing the newcomer all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whiterush the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of money. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
