The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's naughtiness and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper. He is very ill but will not be skipped school the next day. When Aunt Polly asks if she will be skipping school the next morning and what Tom is doing, she answers, "The head and shows less that his clothes is still away from the house."
