Transient Ischemic Attack And Acute Ischemic Stroke Chapter 100 Of Emergency Medicine
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's misbehavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper-time. He has a pocket full of money, and is full of tales about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly asks if he has been to school, but Tom lies, saying he has. Aunt Polly is satisfied, but Tom's half-brother, Huckleberry Finn, tells Tom that he has been skipping school that afternoon and even missing breakfast. Tom8 gets angry and starts a quarrel, but Huckleberry Finn is her brave. Tom has sworn to himself to disguise his visits to school.

Tom goes out of the house in a huff and wanders down the streets of St. Petersburg. He is overwhelmed andquist. Tom and the new arrival clash words and eventually choose to overcome all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to wash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get Jim to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out dramatically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects ruefully on Tom’s misbehavior and how the boys had got away with too much.

Tom comes home at suppertime, looking most penitent. He tells all about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly is musing on all the good Tom would have been if he had not been skipped school that afternoon and went swimming. Yet Tom’s honest, open manner and how his collar is still stuck from under the bandage on his head causes her to be satisfied. Tom has sworn the dirtiest oath himself to dispose of his bandage.

Then goes out of the house in a blue-eyed, white-whiskered and arrogant manner.

Tom and the new arrival enter the room in a bountiful and showy manner and eventually chase the newcomers all the way out.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitenight the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitening in return for a “white alley,” a kind of saddle. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
A transient ischemic attack (TIA) is a brief interruption of blood flow to part of the brain that causes temporary stroke-like symptoms. The risks for TIA are the same as for heart attack, stroke, and peripheral artery disease, and include smoking, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, diabetes, and family history. The artery blockage may occur because of a ruptured plaque due to atherosclerosis. TIA and acute minor ischemic stroke are common and often lead to disabling events. In China, there are approximately 3 million new strokes every year, and approximately ...
